Submits the report called for in Sl. 2.

The Dy Commrs. report clearly explains the facts of the case.

Rig Veda Mantrapushpa post of Sri Chamarajeswara Swami temple at Chamarajnagar carries with it a monthly pay of Rs 6/-

Nanjunda Bhatta, grand-father of the apltt, who was holding this appointment died on 8.6.1896, leaving a widow by name Puttamma.

On the revised Taddik-Patti of this temple, against the post in question, the following remark has been made:—

Rama bhatta is appointed permanently. Out of the pay, a sum of Rs 2 must be paid monthly to Nanjunda Bhatta's widow Puttamma during her life-time and that Rs 4/ should be paid to Rama Bhatta.

The revised Taddik Patti is not up for ref. in another connection. It is here. It may be called for.

Pattamma died on 23.12.09. Her daughter Subbamma petitioned the Taluk Cutcherry stating that the post was hereditary in her father's family, that she is the only heir, and urging her claims to the post in question. Rama Bhatta also petitioned the Taluk Cutcherry praying that the full pay of the post viz Rs 6/ might be conferred to his son Sankara Shastry who was actually discharging the duties.

On his report no. 74/10 dt 24.2.10, while enumerating the facts of the case, the Amildar reported that as regards Rudrapanayana post in the temple, after the death of another Subbamma who was under similar circumstances getting Rs 4/ per mensem, the full pay viz Rs 6/ attached to that post was ordered to be paid to the karavadan Krishnavadhani, and solicited orders in the matter of confirming the full pay to the karamavaran Ambale Rama Bhatta.

On his report no 90/94 dy 6.6.1910, the Amildar reported that the post was not a hereditary one.

After some correspondence, the Dy. Commr sanctioned the payment of the full pay to the karamavaran.

Subbamma's son Gundappa alias Ramanna (Purohita of Nanjunda Bhatta) has appealed to Govt. He says that a sanad granted by his late Highness Sri Krishnaraja Wadiyar Bahadur confers the post hereditarily on his family, that when the post was made out in the name of Rama Bhatta, her grand-mother was not ~~con~~ entitled, and prays that the karamavard may be transferred to his name, the duties thereof being attended to during his minority by a Gumastha. In another petition addressed to the Dy. Commr, he says that the sanad was lost when they left the house at the time of his grand-father's death

Dasappa the father of the minor appellant says that the samad conferring the appointment as his fatherinlaw's family hereditaments has been lost when his fatherinlaw died. In the absence of such a valuable record in his favour and in view of the fact that the appellant would have made capital out of the samad in case he had one, the Dy Com'rs decision in the matter should probably be upheld & the appeal Petn rejected.

The appellant has not proved that the post is hereditary. Even if it should be so considered, Rama Bhatta has been in adverse possession since 1898 at least; though it might be urged on behalf of the minor that he was born before Rama Bhatta's title had become perfected by efflux of time. Ramanna is a boy of only six years and it remains yet to be seen whether he will ever become fit for the post. The petitioner may urge that it is not expedient to disturb existing arrangements.

The fact that 2 Rs a month was being granted the widow leaves that the hereditary character to some extent relaxed. I am inclined to continue the arrangement in favour of the minor boy during the life time of the present incumbent. After his death, the boy is fit, he may be appointed to the post.

Please let me know if there is any thing against this course.

The course indicated above may be adopted but my anxiety in this and other instances is that the endowments often pretended to diminish and naturally the posts does not continue long with to alienation as of N. there must be some limit to the recognition of hereditary rights of property in Nilas or otherwise there will be no incentive for the younger successors to acquire the necessary qualifications and the grantees will not have sufficient incentive to discharge their duties properly with their reduced emoluments.

The case of Andaks is a question apart as they form a special class without sufficient expansive powers or recruitment from outside. It may be necessary in their cases to allow increments to the families to bring up other members to the profession.

This is however a question of policy and has no special reference to the facts of the present case. The small allowance to the grandson will be a help towards his education.

Pass order accordingly. (C. T. C.)

Sir,

Adverting to your docket no. 843 Murz. 62-13-5 dated 31st October 1914 calling for certain information on the petition of Gundappa alias Shamanna regarding the Rigveda Mantrapushpa post of Sri Chamarajeshwara Swami temple at Chamarajanagar, I have the honor to state as follows:-

(1) The baravard of the post was in the name of one Krishnabhatta in October 1863 & it was transferred to his son Ranjunda bhatta (Petr's grand father) as the baravardar was too old and decrepit to look after his duties as per orders of Division Murzi office no. 122 dated 30-10-1863.

(2) The Amildar in his report no. 90 dated 6th April 1910, seems to have arrived at the conclusion that the office was not hereditary as in the revised Kaseik sanctioned by Government in 1898, Ramabhatta was confirmed in place of Ranjundabhatta — (deceased) and Puttamma widow of the deceased, ordered to be paid Rs. 2/- per mensem till her lifetime though Ranjundabhatta and Rama-Bhatta are not related to each other. The Peishkar reports that in filling up vacancies in these offices, they are at present treated as hereditary. 3. Gundappa's age is 6 years and the boy is read-ing in the Infant 4 class in Saradavilasa Pathasala, Mysore, as certified to by the Head Master.
